6.5.1 Institution has a streamlined Internal Quality Assurance Mechanism,

Describe the Internal Quality Assurance Mechanism in the Institution and the activities of IQAC.

The IQAC was established in Sharadchandraji Pawar Homoeopathic Medical College & Hospital in January, 2018. The management of college is quality conscious and acts as a driving force for continuous monitoring the teaching and non teaching staff, their functions and facilities. The college has a quality assurance system including IQAC and a number of Committees for monitoring functions of college.

The college as a learning organization can be seen as synergy of subsystems aimed at holistic education with IQAC as the pivotal component in governance, leadership and sub-system. The institute is taking effective steps towards quality assurance and enhancement, through self regulated continuous feedback mechanisms and standards.

The institute has established the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) as per AYUSH / NAAC guidelines. The IQAC is constituted with members representing all the departments of the College. It has IQAC coordinators and is headed by the Principal as the Chairperson with Student representative and alumni's.

IQAC meetings are held once in three months and the minutes of the meetings are recorded and filed. The IQAC has been instrumental in introducing several quality measures:

- Awareness of Performance based Appraisal System.
- Strengthening Research Activities by introduction of eminent academicians and research scholars from within the country and abroad.
- Establishment of Learning Management System with online platform.
- Conducting conferences, seminars and workshops on IPR. Conducting Academic and Administrative Audits.

Students and Interns feedback is taken each year. There is parents teachers meeting. Feedbacks and suggestions from parents are taken and discussed for implementation if accepted by Committee.

Teaching and non-teaching staff continuously work on the improvement of the institutional activities and are Student Centric. Co-curricular activities as well as extra Curricular activities are organized. Students give Clinical presentation during the year. Thus, it builds up their confidence, makes them independent and their Clinical Skills are developed for overall all round development.

Terminal and Preliminary exams are taken in which Slow Learners are identified and they are counseled.
